

Caisses populaires contribute to NBCC

During Cooperation Week, the Caisses populaires acadiennes announced a financial contribution of $100,000 towards the NBCC Foundation's major funding campaign.

The contribution made by the Fondation des Caisses populaires acadiennes will be given over a five-year period, at an amount of $20,000 per year. The donation will help the New Brunswick Community College's (NBCC) funding campaign. NBCC is trying to raise $3.75 million.

"We are thrilled to be able to count on the precious support of the Fondation des caisses populaires acadiennes in our work to promote excellence in our youth", said Michel Theriault, assistant deputy minister and CEO for New Brunswick Community College.

Theriault said the support solidifies the "special relationship" the community colleges have with the business and institutional sector.

"(It is) a relationship that is essential to ensuring that a qualified workforce can rise to meet the economic realities of our province."
